7. B — Read the full story
8. C — Watching one video
9. B — Asking questions
10. C — Lots of people liked it

Part 2 — Short Answer (Sample Answers)

11. Pausing helps you stay calm so you don't react with strong emotions and make the situation worse.
12. Check if it's true by looking for facts or reliable sources.
13. Memes are often jokes or exaggerations, so they might not show the real truth.
14. A lot of likes doesn't mean something is true — it may just be popular.

15. Asking questions helps you find out what's actually real before you believe or share something.

Part 3 — Extended Response (Sample Answer)

16. Headline Harry might believe the dragon right away because he only looks at the title. Meme Believer Cassy might think it's real because it looks funny or cool. Snap Judgment Sammy might assume it's true without checking anything. A Media Master would look for evidence, check reliable sources, and ask questions before believing or sharing the video.
