

Teacher Answer Key – Grade 3

Media Masters Rock – Lesson 1: The Rubber Band Rule

1. Multiple Choice

Correct Answer: B

Things you post online can come back to you later.

2. Multiple Choice

Correct Answer: C

Thinking first before liking, commenting, or sharing.

3. True or False

1. T — Deleted posts can still be saved, shared, or found.
2. T — Kind actions can also “snap back” in a good, positive way.
3. F — Posts can spread far beyond just friends.
4. T — Media Masters take responsibility for their online actions.

4. Short Answer (Accept reasonable answers such as):

- Because it can snap back on you later.
- Because once something is online, it can stay online.
- Because it might hurt someone or cause trouble.
- Because thinking first helps you make good choices.

5. Sorting Activity – Actions That Could SNAP BACK on You

Should be circled:

- Sharing a mean comment
- Posting a picture without permission
- Spreading something that might not be true

Should NOT be circled:

- Posting something kind to cheer someone up
- Thinking before you share
- Encouraging a friend online

6. Scenario Question

Correct Answer: B – Think first and do NOT post it

7. Writing Prompt

Accept any reasonable answers demonstrating understanding.

Examples:

- Posting a mean joke could hurt someone later.
- Sharing a rumor could cause trouble.
- Posting a silly picture of someone without permission could snap back.