

Lesson 3 Quiz – Who’s Getting the Candy? (Grade 8)

Name: _____

Date: _____

1. Multiple Choice (Choose ONE)

“Candy” in Media Masters Rock stands for the reward someone gets from a post. Which set correctly lists the three kinds of candy?

- A. Respect, safety, honesty
- B. Money, fame, popularity
- C. Humor, excitement, curiosity
- D. Likes, comments, shares

2. True or False

Write T for true or F for false.

- A. ____ Every post benefits someone, even if the creator didn’t mean for it to.
- B. ____ Sometimes people share things because they want others to think like them.
- C. ____ Helpful posts still give “candy,” even if the candy is just feeling good about helping.

3. Identify the Motivation

For each scenario, circle the main motivation.

- A. A YouTuber exaggerates a story to get more views.

Money Fame Popularity

- B. A student posts a polished selfie and hopes classmates will react.

Money Fame Popularity

- C. A science website posts a free article explaining how storms form.

Money Fame Popularity

4. Short Answer

In one sentence, explain:

Why is it important to ask “Who’s getting the candy?” before trusting a post?

5. Scenario Question

A sports influencer posts:

“This new energy drink made me twice as fast in one week! You HAVE to try it!”

What is the most likely “candy” they are getting?

- A. Money
- B. Fame
- C. Popularity

Circle ONE.

###