

LESSON 4 – HOW FULL IS IT?

Grade 5 – Student Quiz

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. Multiple Choice

When Media Masters ask “How Full Is It?”, they are checking:

- A. How long the post is
- B. Whether the post is helpful, hurtful, or truthful
- C. How many emojis the post has
- D. Whether their friends posted it

Circle one: A B C D

2. True or False

If a post is not truthful, it is okay to share it as long as it’s funny.

Circle: TRUE / FALSE

3. Sort the Posts

Write H for Helpful, HF for Hurtful, or T for Truthful next to each example:

- A. _____ “Here’s a study tip that helped me remember my spelling words!”
- B. _____ “Wow, look at this person’s silly outfit—everyone laugh!”
- C. _____ A post shows a real science experiment with evidence and details.

4. Multiple Choice

Which question should you ask before commenting on a post that makes you feel upset?

- A. “How fast can I reply?”
- B. “How many people will like my comment?”
- C. “What if this happened to me?”
- D. “Should I post before reading?”

Circle one: A B C D

5. Short Answer

Why is it important to check for evidence before believing a claim online?
(Write 1–2 sentences.)

6. Scenario Question

You see a post saying: “BREAKING: Our school is being replaced by a giant water park!!!”

What should you do first?

- A. Repost it right away
- B. Ask, “Is this truthful? Where’s the evidence?”
- C. Tell everyone at lunch
- D. Comment, “NO WAY!!!”

Circle one: A B C D

7. Media Master Moment!

A student posts: “Don’t sit with that new kid—they’re weird.”

Is this post:

- A. Helpful
- B. Hurtful
- C. Truthful

Circle one: A B C

###