

Lesson 4 Quiz – HOW FULL IS IT?

Grade 7 • Name: _____ Date: _____

Instructions:

Think like a Media Master! Read each question carefully and choose the best answer.

1. Multiple Choice — What does “How FULL is it?” help you decide?

It helps you determine whether a post is:

- A. Funny, popular, or surprising
- B. Helpful, hurtful, or truthful
- C. Trending, viral, or ignored
- D. Exciting, boring, or confusing

Answer: _____

2. True or False

If a post is hurtful but true, it’s still okay to repost it because the truth should always be shared.

Answer: TRUE / FALSE

3. Categorize the Post

Label each post as H (Helpful), HF (Hurtful), or T (Truthful).

A. A post that teaches students how to organize their homework more easily.

Answer: _____

B. A post claiming a celebrity said something shocking — but there is no source.

Answer: _____

C. A post making fun of a new student’s clothes.

Answer: _____

4. Multiple Choice — Evidence Check

Which of these is the BEST sign that a post is truthful?

- A. It has thousands of likes
- B. It matches something you already believe
- C. It has evidence from reliable sources
- D. It sounds exciting and surprising

Answer: _____

5. Short Response

Explain why sharing hurtful posts — even if you didn't create them — still causes harm.

Write your answer:

6. Scenario Question

You see a post that says:

“New rule: All 7th graders must stay after school EVERY DAY starting next week.”

People are panicking and commenting fast.

As a Media Master, what should you do FIRST?

- A. Repost it to warn others
- B. Ask: Is this from a trustworthy source?
- C. Comment your frustration
- D. Ignore it because it's probably fake

Answer: _____

7. Media Master Judgment

A friend shares a post that exaggerates a rumor to make it funnier.

What is the “How Full Is It?” evaluation?

- A. Helpful
- B. Hurtful
- C. Truthful

Answer: _____