

Lesson 4 Quiz – Grade 8

Name: _____ Date: _____

Topic: HOW FULL IS IT? (Helpful • Hurtful • Truthful)

1. Multiple Choice

“How FULL is it?” is a strategy that helps Media Masters:

- A. Count how many likes a post gets
- B. Decide whether a post is helpful, hurtful, or truthful
- C. Choose which posts are the funniest
- D. Avoid reading anything they disagree with

Answer: _____

2. True or False

A post can be truthful and still be hurtful — and Media Masters stop to consider both before sharing.

TRUE or FALSE?

Answer: _____

3. Categorize Each Post (Helpful • Hurtful • Truthful)

Write H (Helpful), HF (Hurtful), or T (Truthful) next to each one.

- A. A post that gives evidence-supported instructions for safer online gaming.

Answer: _____

- B. A post that spreads an unverified rumor claiming a student cheated on a test.

Answer: _____

- C. A post encouraging students to donate items to a local shelter.

Answer: _____

4. Evidence Evaluation – Multiple Choice

A post claims a new “miracle drink” will make you instantly smarter. What’s the BEST first step?

- A. Share it to see what others think
- B. Assume it’s false and ignore it
- C. Check for scientific evidence from credible sources
- D. Ask friends if they’ve heard the rumor

Answer: _____

5. Short Response

Why is it important for Media Masters to consider both truthfulness and impact (helpful/hurtful) before reposting something?

Write 1–2 sentences:

6. Scenario – Think Like a Media Master

A post shares a “shocking fact” about a famous person but gives no sources. The comments section is full of arguments.

Before reacting, what two questions from “How Full Is It?” should you ask?

Answer (2 questions):

- 1.
- 2.

7. Media Master Judgment – Choose the BEST option

You find a post that is true, but it could embarrass someone at school and doesn’t seem necessary to share.

What should a Media Master do?

- A. Share it because truth should always be spread
- B. Not share it — even true posts can be hurtful
- C. Rewrite the post to make it funnier
- D. Share it but add a “sorry” in the comments

Answer: _____
