⭐ Grade 5 Quiz — Lesson 5: Think First!

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. Why did Steve immediately question the post about "dinosaurs at the beach" in Alabama?

A. The video looked old
B. He doesn't like beaches
C. It didn't match scientific facts he already knows
D. His friend told him it was fake

2. Which of the following BEST explains why "Stop. Think. Check." is important?

A. It helps you find the newest posts
B. It helps you avoid reacting to something untrue or misleading
C. It helps you get more likes
D. It makes posting faster

3. A post says "Pizza trees are real!" What is the MOST important critical thinking step to take next?

A. Ask if your friends believe it
B. Check whether it makes sense based on what you already know
C. Share it because it's funny
D. Ignore it completely

4. A post makes you feel strong emotions (anger, fear, excitement). What should you do FIRST?

A. Comment loudly
B. Scroll past without thinking
C. Pause and ask why the post wants you to feel that way
D. Share it so others can see it

5. Someone posts a video of a "flying hamster," and it looks convincing. What is the MOST reliable way to check if it's real?

A. Count how many likes it has
B. Look for evidence from multiple trustworthy sources
C. Ask the person who posted it
D. See if your friends believe it

6. What does the term "good evidence" mean?

A. A screenshot and one comment
B. A video with dramatic music
C. Facts and proof from dependable, credible sources
D. Something exciting or surprising

7. Why is it helpful to know who made a video?

A. So you can follow them
B. So you can copy their style
C. Because creators may have a reason or motivation for making it
D. Because famous people never post fake things

8. Why might an AI-generated video fool people?

A. AI always tells the truth
B. AI can make fake things look extremely real
C. It uses special colors
D. Only adults can spot AI content

9. Which Media Master Rule helps you figure out why someone posted something?

A. The Rubber Band Rule
B. Who's Getting the Candy?
C. How Full Is It?
D. AQBS

10. Which of these statements BEST explains why critical thinking is important online?

A. It lets you win arguments
B. It helps you post more often
C. It helps you spot what's real, what's fake, and what's trying to trick your emotions
D. It makes videos load faster

###