⭐ Grade 6 Quiz — Lesson 5: Think First!

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. Why is the dinosaur-at-the-beach post a good example of something that needs critical thinking?

A. It looks fun
B. It contradicts known scientific facts and should be questioned
C. It has lots of likes
D. The picture is blurry

2. "Stop. Think. Check." is important because it helps you…

A. scroll faster
B. delete posts
C. slow down and evaluate whether information is trustworthy
D. get more followers

3. A video looks REAL but claims a hamster can fly. What is the BEST way to evaluate it?

A. Look at the comments
B. See if your friends believe it
C. Search for confirmation from multiple reliable sources
D. Rewatch it several times

4. Which situation MOST requires you to ask, "Who made this—and why?"

A. A picture of someone's lunch
B. A funny dog video
C. A shocking clip that asks you to "Share fast before it gets deleted!"
D. A photo of a sunset

5. A post makes you instantly angry. What is the BEST next step?

A. Comment your feelings immediately
B. Share it so others get angry too
C. Ignore the emotion
D. Pause and question whether the emotion is being used to influence you

6. Why is "good evidence" important when evaluating a surprising claim?

A. It makes posts more entertaining
B. It supports the claim with facts from dependable sources
C. It gives the post more likes
D. It helps the creator become popular

7. Why might an AI-generated video be difficult for students to identify as fake?

A. AI never makes mistakes
B. AI can create images and videos that look completely real
C. AI always labels its videos
D. Kids never pay attention online

8. Which Media Master Rule helps you figure out the purpose or motivation behind a post?

A. The Rubber Band Rule
B. Who's Getting the Candy?
C. How Full Is It?
D. AQBS

9. Why does Steve say critical thinking is a "superpower"?

A. It makes you faster online
B. You become better at video games
C. It helps you make smart, safe, responsible choices on the internet
D. It gets you more followers

10. Which of the following is the BEST example of using critical thinking online?

A. Sharing a post because it seems exciting
B. Believing a video because it looks real
C. Checking the post's source, looking for evidence, and noticing emotional triggers
D. Only trusting posts made by friends

###